Dear all

Following our e-scoring session earlier in the week, a link to that meeting is below, which may prove useful to you as a refresher. I've also attached the handbook for the system as well, so that you can get used to it before next weekend, and logins are unchanged from last year – but if you cannot find them please let me know and I'll resend them.

While writing, just a nudge in relation to player registrations – you will be aware of the additional step that is required in order for a player to be given their player licence number for this season, and that is that your admin on JustGo needs to allocate the players to one of the “NL” teams on your team list. This is so that we know which team they are playing in and can allocate them the relevant player number. As far as I can see, there are currently over 250 players with licences, and attached to National League clubs, who haven't been allocated to a team yet.

It is just worth noting that a player not allocated to a team won't be allocated with a player number, which means they will be ineligible to play until they are. Deadline for week 1 registrations is Tuesday evening (1st October) so please don't delay.
